Riverside University: Examination Regulations

Office of the Controller of Examinations · 2025-26

1. Eligibility to sit examinations

Students must have a minimum attendance of 70% in a course to sit its end-semester examination. Students below this threshold are marked as debarred for that course.

2. Admit cards

Admit cards are issued through the Student Portal 7 days before the first examination.

3. Re-evaluation

Students who are not satisfied with their marks may apply for re-evaluation.

1. Apply through the Student Portal within 10 days of the results being published.
2. Pay the re-evaluation fee of INR 500 per course.
3. The answer script is re-marked by a different examiner.
4. Revised results are published within 21 days of the application.

Marks may go up or down after re-evaluation. The re-evaluated mark is final.
